NEW MEXICO HUMAN SERVICES DEPARTMENT INCOME SUPPORT DIVISION

This is an amendment to 8.106.420 NMAC, Sections 7, 12 and 15, effective 03/16/2005.

8.106.420.7 DEFINITIONS:

A. A - L:

(1) Capacity: means an individual's mental or physical ability especially as it relates to employment, taking into consideration non-medical factors such as an individual's age, education, work experience, vocational training, ability to speak English, etc. These non-medical factors are generically referred to as "other work-related factors."

(2) Contingency requirements: treatment plans or options identified by the IRU as available within the community that an individual must participate in, in order to remain eligible for GA, unless a determination is made that good cause exists for the individual's inability to comply.

(3) Disability processing unit: means the unit within the income support division that is responsible for managing a case and guiding an applicant through the GA application process.

(4) Gainful employment: means any job or class of jobs in the state that would provide an income equaling or exceeding 85% of the federal poverty guideline for the size of the benefit group.

(5) Impairment: means a physical or mental condition resulting from anatomical, physiological, developmental, or psychological abnormalities evidenced by medically-acceptable clinical or laboratory diagnostic techniques. To determine a physical and/or mental impairment, medical evidence documenting signs, symptoms and objective findings must be obtained and evaluated from a physician in relation to an individual's ability to be gainfully employed.

(6) Incapacity review unit: means the unit within the income support division that is responsible for determining whether an applicant or recipient is disabled according to the guidelines for the general assistance-disabled adults program.

(7) Interim assistance reimbursement: means the program within the social security administration that will reimburse the state through HSD for payments made to an individual receiving GA disability during the period the individual's application for SSI was pending.

(8) License or licensed: means a document or documentation identifying the legal authorization to practice within a professional category.

B. M - Z:

(1) Permanent total disability: means a physical, mental or developmental impairment expected to last at least 12 months from the date of application, which prevents gainful employment in any job within the individual's employment capacity.

(2) Physician: means a licensed medical or mental health practitioner including, but not limited to: medical doctors, doctors of osteopathy or podiatry, ophthalmologists, psychiatrists or psychologists, counselors, certified nurse practitioners, physician assistants with a supervising physician's signature, or mental health professionals with qualifications set by an agency.

(3) Temporary total disability: means a physical, mental or developmental impairment expected to last at least 30 days but no more than 12 months from the date of application, that prevents gainful employment in any job within the individual's employment capacity.

(4) Time-limited disability: means an physical or mental impairment that is expected to last at least 30 days but less than six months from the date of application and has been diagnosed by a physician or mental health practitioner, that prevents gainful employment in any job within the individual's employment capacity.

(5) Work-related factors: means factors taken into account in the disability determination process such as age, education, training, work experience, language ability, appearance, marital status, living situation, as well as relevant social history and minimal employment and activities that would be required in a work setting such as sitting, standing, walking, lifting, carrying, handling, seeing, hearing, communicating and understanding and following directions.

[8.106.420.7 NMAC - N, 07/01/2004; A, 03/16/2005]

8.106.420.12 INITIAL CERTIFICATION - TEMPORARY OR PERMANENT DISABILITY

A. Initial six-month certification: An initial six-month certification period may be assigned for certain individuals whose disability is temporary or permanent.

(1) Contents of medical

reports: The medical information or report must be documented on the department's standardized and approved medical release/physician's statement or may be documented on a physician's statement that includes all the information required to make a disability determination.

(2) At a minimum, the medical information used to substantiate an initial six-month certification and a finding of disability shall include, but may not be limited to:

(a) a record or narrative report resulting from examinations or diagnostic procedures;

(b) a statement of the impairment;

(c) a projected time period of the length of the disability; and

(d) a description of how the impairment precludes employment within the individual's capacity.

B. An initial six-month certification confers eligibility only as long as the GA recipient continues to comply with ongoing requirements of the temporary or permanent disability determination process.

(1) GA benefits shall be terminated by issuing a notice of adverse action during the initial six-month certification period when a determination is made that the GA recipient has failed to comply with ongoing requirements for determining a disability that is temporary or permanent.

(2) An individual whose benefits are terminated for failure to comply ~~[may not reapply for benefits based on the same impairment until at least 12 months have passed since the original date of application]~~ with contingency requirements shall not be eligible for GA benefits based upon the same impairment for 12 months or until the individual has demonstrated compliance with the contingency for a period of 30 days following the date of closure, whichever is earlier.

[8.106.420.12 NMAC - N, 07/01/2004; A, 03/16/2005]

8.106.420.15 RESPONSIBILITY FOR DETERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY - CASEWORKER

A. GA application process:

(1) The caseworker shall register an application for GA and shall schedule an interview with the applicant. The interview must be scheduled to occur within ten working days from the date of application.

(2) An individual who files an application in person at the ISD office shall be screened for the appropriate GA category. An application received by mail or any other acceptable method, shall be registered and an appointment for an interview shall be scheduled.

(3) At the interview, the caseworker shall explain the GA program. A caseworker may make an informed choice and register the type of disability assistance that most appropriately meets the applicant's stated disability or duration of disability.

(4) The caseworker shall send a delay notice to an applicant for an application that is not processed within 60 days from the date of application. The delay notice shall inform the applicant of the reason for the delay.

(5) The caseworker shall develop a medical/social summary describing the individual's health history, appearance, work and personal situation.

(6) The caseworker shall take appropriate action on the application and, if approved, shall inform the GA recipient of any conditions or contingency requirements for continued eligibility.

(7) Reporting responsibilities: The caseworker shall inform the benefit group of its responsibility to report changes. The caseworker shall be required to take action on any change reported by the benefit group to determine if the change affects eligibility or benefit amount. The caseworker shall document the date a change is reported and whether the change affects eligibility or benefit amount.

B. Application denial:

(1) The caseworker shall deny an application for GA benefits when the benefit group's:

(a) countable gross income exceeds 85% of the federal poverty guideline for the size of the benefit group; or

(b) total countable income exceeds the standard of need for the size of the benefit group; or

(c) countable resources exceed the liquid or nonliquid resource limit for the GA program.

(2) The caseworker shall deny an application for GA on the 60th day after an application is filed when the applicant fails, without good cause, to comply with the GA application process, including but not limited to, attending a scheduled appointment with a medical practitioner. Good cause reasons include, but may not be limited to, transportation difficulties, illness or death.

(3) The caseworker shall deny an application upon a finding that an individual who received an initial six-month certification for a temporary or permanent disability is applying for disability based on the same impairment, but:

(a) did not comply with the ongoing requirements of the disability determination process;

(b) did not have good cause for the failure to comply; and

(c) 12 months have not elapsed since the original application for the same impairment.

C. Obtaining medical information: The caseworker shall be responsible for accepting medical reports provided by the applicant or recipient at the interview or in the local county office any time after the interview, for preparing a medical/social summary, and for preparing necessary documents for all GA disability applications.

D. Forwarding medical information: All medical reports and social information, the social summary and other related documents shall be submitted to the disability processing unit for any application based on a temporary or permanent disability.

E. Determining eligibility: The caseworker:

(1) may approve GA for a verified time-limited disability that is expected to last six months or less;

(2) may make an initial time-limited disability determination of six months for a verified temporary disability that is expected to last at least six months but less than 12 months; or may make an initial time-limited disability determination of six months for a verified permanent disability that is expected to last 12 months or more;

(a) after approval, the caseworker must forward medical information and appropriate forms with the individual's signature to the disability processing unit for review, case management and a disability determination from the IRU;

(b) if IRU subsequently determines that an individual was not temporarily disabled, there shall be no overpayment claim established for any month covered by the initial determination, as long as the individual has not intentionally provided incorrect information in order to receive assistance;

(3) must receive approval from the IRU prior to continuing GA benefits to a client beyond the initial certification of time-limited benefits;

(4) shall not make a time-limited disability determination based on the same impairment unless 12 months have passed following the date of closure of the time-limited benefits.

F. Termination of GA participation: A caseworker shall terminate participation in the GA program if it is determined for an active case:

(1) that countable gross income exceeds eighty-five percent (85%) of the federal poverty guideline for the size of the benefit group;

(2) that countable net income equals or exceeds the standard of need for the size of the benefit group;

(3) that on the basis of medical and/or social information, the incapacity review unit has determined a disability no longer exists;

(4) that an individual has failed or refused to comply with a condition of eligibility or a contingency requirement, without good cause;

(5) that an individual refuses or fails to comply with the conditions for eligibility at 8.106.420.17 NMAC; or

(6) that the duration of a time-limited disability has expired; or

(7) that a GA recipient has failed to comply with ongoing eligibility requirements after an initial certification based on temporary or permanent eligibility.

NEW MEXICO PUBLIC EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Explanatory paragraph: This is an amendment to Section 10 (PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS) of 6.30.2 NMAC (STANDARDS FOR EXCELLENCE). The amendment adds a new paragraph (8) to subsection I (Subject areas) providing that all science classes that include dissection as part of the curriculum must provide virtual dissection techniques as alternative activities for any student who is opposed to real dissections for ethical, moral, cultural, or religious reasons.

6.30.2.10 PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS

I. Subject areas. The district shall be in compliance with subject area requirements as specified in Section 22-13-1 NMSA 1978.

(1) The PED shall require instruction in specific subject areas as provided in paragraphs (2) through 6 of subsection I of 6.30.2.10 NMAC. Any public school or school district failing to meet these minimum requirements shall not be accredited by the PED.

(2) All first and second grade classes shall provide daily instruction in language arts skills, including phonics, and mathematics.

(3) All third grade classes shall provide daily instruction in language arts skills and mathematics.

(4) All fourth, fifth and sixth grade classes shall provide instruction in language arts skills, with an emphasis on writing and editing; mathematics; science; and social studies, including geography. The following subject areas shall be offered in the remaining instructional time: art; music; physical education; health; and computer literacy, including a general familiarization with computers and support in the areas of mathematics and writing through word processing.

(5) All seventh grade classes shall provide instruction in English, with an emphasis on grammar and writing; communication skills or science; New Mexico history and geography; mathematics; and physical fitness. Remaining instructional time may be used for electives listed in paragraph (7) of subsection I of 6.30.2.10 NMAC.

(6) All eighth grade classes shall provide instruction in English, mathematics, United States history and science. Remaining instructional time may be used for electives listed in paragraph (7) of subsection I of 6.30.2.10 NMAC.

(7) The electives authorized in paragraphs (5) and (6) of subsection I of 6.30.2.10 NMAC are art, industrial arts, chorus, band, home economics, typing, creative writing, speech, drama, Spanish, computer literacy, American sign language and other electives approved by the PED.

(8) All science classes that include dissection activities as part of the curriculum must provide virtual dissection techniques as alternative activities for any student who is opposed to real dissections for ethical, moral, cultural, or religious reasons. Alternative techniques shall approximate the experience of real dissection activities as closely and appropriately as possible. A virtual dissection technique means carrying out dissection activities using computer 2-D or 3-D simulations, videotape or videodisk simulations, take-apart anatomical models, photographs, or anatomical atlases.

NEW MEXICO HUMAN SERVICES DEPARTMENT INCOME SUPPORT DIVISION

HUMAN SERVICES DEPARTMENT PUBLIC NOTICE

The Human Services Department is required by federal law to file a State Plan with the federal Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), Administration for Children that describe how the Department will administer the State's TANF-funded cash assistance program.

The Department proposed amendments to the TANF State Plan through New Mexico Register Vol. XV, No. 15 to allow recovery of issued benefits from a dormant EBT account after 180 days. The public comment period was for 45 days. Any public comment received by September 27, 2004 was considered.

The Department proposed additional amendments to the TANF State Plan through New Mexico Register Vol. XVI, No. 1 to allow for early childhood development programs to serve pre-kindergarten children. The public comment period was for 30 days and a public hearing was held on February 14, 2005. No persons attended the hearing and any public comment received by September 27, 2004 was considered.

The changes as proposed will be implemented. No other changes will be made at this time.
