Explanation of Purpose and Summary of Text

The purpose of repealing and replacing Subsection B of 22.510.3.8 NMAC, Policy Statement Pertaining to the Granting of Parole, Denial of Parole, Revocation or Rescission of Parole, and to the Discharge of Parolee, is to qualify the application of Paragraph II and to explain that it excludes persons serving indeterminate life sentences who were under the age of eighteen (18) at the time their crime was committed. Further, the rule introduces the proposed new rule, 22.510.17, Parole Hearings for Youth Sentenced in Adult Court.

The purpose of repealing and replacing the remainder of 22.510.3 NMAC is to update formatting of the rule to conform to current Commission of Public Records requirements.

The purpose of the proposed new rule 22.510.17, Parole Hearings for Youth Sentenced in Adult Court, is to establish the procedures and processes the Parole Board must follow regarding parole determinations involving persons serving indeterminate life sentences who were under the age of eighteen (18) at the time their crime was committed. The rule is designed to ensure compliance with federal and state law while maintaining the Parole Board's continuing commitment to public safety and crime victim input in all proceedings. Under recent Supreme Court precedent, state parole boards must modify their proceedings for those serving adult sentences for crimes committed when they were under eighteen (18) to ensure that such persons have a "meaningful opportunity to obtain release based on demonstrated maturity and rehabilitation." In accordance with this precedent, the rule outlines specific considerations the Parole Board must make regarding a person's youth at the time of the offense, as well as rehabilitative efforts the inmate has made during their incarceration. In furtherance of this precedent, the rule expands procedural safeguards to this limited class of offenders, including access to counsel and adequate notice. The rule does not change the timing of eligibility for parole from an indeterminate life sentence, which remains at thirty (30) years (see NMSA 1978, Section 31-21-10). The rule provides a definitions list for both unique and frequently used terms throughout the rule, such as "aggravating factor," "mitigating factor," and "experts." Additionally, pursuant to NMSA 1978, Section 31-21-25, the rule protects the rights of crime victims to be present and participate in all parole hearings. The rule will impact a narrow class of offenders within the New Mexico Corrections Department. At the time of the initiation of this rulemaking process, twenty-seven (27) people are serving indeterminate life sentences for crimes committed when they were under the age of eighteen (18). Of those, two (2) are currently eligible for parole.

Statutory Authorization(s):

Paragraph (8) of Subsection B of Section 31-21-25 NMSA 1978.
