

TITLE 5 POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION
CHAPTER 7 TUITION AND FINANCIAL AID
PART 37 NEW MEXICO OPPORTUNITY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

5.7.37.1 ISSUING AGENCY: State of New Mexico Higher Education Department.
[5.7.37.1 NMAC – Rp., 5.7.37.1 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.2 SCOPE: Provisions of 5.7.37 NMAC apply to all public post-secondary institutions and tribal colleges in the state of New Mexico.
[5.7.37.2 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.2 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.3 STATUTORY AUTHORITY: Section 9-25-1 et seq. NMSA 1978 and Section 21-21R-1 et seq. NMSA 1978
[5.7.37.3 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.3 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.4 DURATION: Permanent.
[5.7.37.4 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.4 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.5 EFFECTIVE DATE: June 25, 2024, unless a later date is cited at the end of a section.
[5.7.37.5 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.5 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.6 OBJECTIVE: The objective of 5.7.37 NMAC is to provide a level of financial support to qualified students who are enrolled in a workforce certificate program, or an associate or bachelor’s degree program at an eligible New Mexico public post-secondary educational institution or tribal college. This level of financial support is intended to help defray the cost of tuition and fees at the public post-secondary educational institution or tribal college where the student is enrolled pursuant to 5.7.37.12 NMAC. Provided sufficient funding exists in the Opportunity Scholarship Fund, the award may be used to supplement, but not supplant, the New Mexico legislative lottery tuition scholarship in an amount not to exceed the cost of tuition and fees for the qualifying semester and summer semesters, and fees for other semesters.

5.7.37.8 STUDENT ELIGIBILITY:

A. A scholarship may be awarded to a qualified student who:

(1) has not earned a bachelor’s, master’s degree or doctoral degree at the time the scholarship is awarded;

(2) is enrolled in at least six credit hours per spring or fall semester and no more than eighteen credit hours per fall or spring semester; except that the credit-hour minimums do not apply to a student in the last semester before graduation and if a qualified student enrolls in more than eighteen credit hours any tuition charges which exceed tuition charged for the maximum of eighteen credit hours shall not be funded by the scholarship;

(3) is enrolled in at least three and no more than nine credit hours per summer semester; provided that a student is not required to attend a summer semester to maintain eligibility; and

(4) maintains a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or higher on a 4.0 scale;

(5) has established and maintained New Mexico residency as defined in 5.7.18.9 NMAC, is eligible for a nondiscrimination waiver as defined in Subsection K of 5.7.18.10 NMAC or is an active member of the New Mexico National Guard. All residency requirements for recent graduate learners must be met upon completion of high school, graduation or receipt of a high school equivalency credential recognized by the state of New Mexico;

(6) has been determined to be a qualified student; and

(7) has met requirements in Paragraphs (1) through (6) of Subsection A of 5.7.37.8 NMAC or students with exceptional mitigating circumstances as determined by the institution’s lead financial aid officer; students who are incapable of meeting the requirements specified in Paragraphs (1) through (6) of Subsection A of 5.7.37.8 NMAC due to a documented exceptional mitigating circumstance do not forfeit eligibility for the opportunity scholarship; however, the following requirements shall apply:

(a) the student shall provide documents certifying the nature of the students exceptional mitigating circumstance to the institution’s lead financial aid officer at the post-secondary educational institution at which the student is enrolling or will enroll; the institution’s lead financial aid officer shall exercise professional judgment to determine whether the exceptional mitigating circumstance is beyond the student's control and precludes the student from meeting the requirements specified in Paragraphs (1) through (6) of Subsection A of 5.7.37.8 NMAC;

(b) if, in the professional judgment of the institution's lead financial aid officer, the student's exceptional mitigating circumstance is recognized as a valid reason for the student's inability to meet the requirements specified in Paragraphs (1) through (6) of Subsection A of 5.7.37.8 NMAC the student's initial or continuing eligibility for the opportunity scholarship shall be suspended or deferred unless and until such time that the student is capable of meeting the requirements of Paragraphs (1) through (6) Subsection A of 5.7.37.8 NMAC.

B. Other provisions regarding eligibility.

(1) Students with disabilities or their legal guardian who are requesting a reduction of the credit hour requirement shall obtain a referral from the student services division of the public post-secondary educational institution or tribal college where the student is enrolled that oversees students with special needs. Referrals and any sufficient documentation shall be received no later than 30 days after the student's enrollment begin date for their first semester or the semester for which they are seeking a change in credit hours. The documentation may be reused for the subsequent semesters unless the student is requesting to decrease their approved credit hours. In this case updated documentation shall be required prior to the start of the semester for which the student is enrolling.

(2) Students are encouraged, but are not required, to complete a free application for student aid (FAFSA) for scholarship eligibility.

(3) If a recent graduate learner enrolls in no more than 12 credit hours during the 16 months following high school graduation or receipt of a high school equivalency credential the student may qualify for opportunity scholarship funding for tuition and fees. If a recent graduate learner enrolls in 12 or more credit hours beyond 16 months after graduation or receipt of a high school equivalency credential the student shall not receive the opportunity scholarship for tuition for a period of two years following the end of the semester when eligibility was lost. A recent graduate learner who loses eligibility for the opportunity scholarship or legislative lottery scholarship pursuant to 5.7.37.14 NMAC or 5.7.20.14 NMAC and has not been approved for a probationary semester may petition for reinstatement pursuant to 5.7.37.10 NMAC.

C. Upon satisfaction of the eligibility requirements, the scholarship shall be awarded to a returning student learner during the second continuous semester of enrollment. A student's continuing eligibility shall be determined on a semester basis. Recent graduate learners may receive awards within 16 months of graduation as provided in Paragraph 3 of Subsection B of 5.7.37.8 NMAC.

D. An opportunity scholarship award may be re-awarded to a student who:

(1) maintains a minimum of a 2.5 cumulative grade point average or higher on a 4.0 scale; a student has the right to request use of the student's cumulative grade point average earned at all New Mexico public post-secondary educational institutions and tribal colleges; and

(2) maintains continuous enrollment and meets the credit hour criteria as provided in Paragraphs (2) through (3) of Subsection A of 5.7.37.8 NMAC.

E. The following conditions apply for students transferring the scholarship:

(1) a transfer transcript is required;

(2) student transfers shall defer to the receiving institution to determine eligibility; and

(3) a qualified student who transfers shall continue to be eligible at the receiving institution after receipt of the student's transfer transcript containing eligibility confirmation.

F. Previously completed dual credit courses shall not count toward the credit hour cap.

G. In no case shall eligibility to receive the scholarship extend beyond 90 attempted credit hours for completion of an associate degree or 160 attempted credit hours for completion of a bachelor's degree.
[5.7.37.8 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.8 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.9 PROBATION: Students who have been determined to be eligible and subsequently have exceptional mitigating circumstances as determined by the institution's lead financial aid officer may be placed on a probationary status under the following conditions:

A. the student shall provide documents certifying the nature of their exceptional mitigating circumstance to the lead financial aid officer at the post-secondary institution at which the student is enrolling or will enroll;

B. the lead financial aid officer shall exercise professional judgment to determine whether the exceptional mitigating circumstance is beyond the student's control and precludes the student from meeting the requirements specified in Subsection A and Subsection C of 5.7.37.8 NMAC; and

C. a student may receive scholarship funding while on probationary status, however under no circumstances shall the student receive program awards in excess of those prescribed in Subsections A through F of 5.7.37.11 NMAC.

[5.7.37.9 NMAC – N, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.10 PETITION FOR REINSTATEMENT: A recent graduate learner who loses eligibility for the opportunity scholarship or legislative lottery scholarship pursuant to 5.7.37.14 NMAC or 5.7.20.14 NMAC and has not been approved for a probationary semester may petition for reinstatement of eligibility for the opportunity scholarship as a returning student learner no sooner than two years following the end of the semester when eligibility was lost. A returning student learner who loses eligibility for the opportunity scholarship pursuant to 5.7.20.14 NMAC and has not been approved for a probationary semester may petition for reinstatement of eligibility for the opportunity scholarship as a returning student learner no sooner than two years following the end of the semester when eligibility was lost.

[5.7.37.10 NMAC – N, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.11 DURATION OF SCHOLARSHIP:

A. Upon qualification, the student's initial scholarship shall begin with enrollment at a public post-secondary educational institution or tribal college. Thereafter, each scholarship is for a period of one semester subject to revocation for failure to maintain eligibility. The scholarship may be renewed on a per semester basis.

B. Scholarships may be provided to a qualified student seeking one or more credit-bearing workforce certificates. A scholarship for a credit-bearing workforce certificate may only be awarded where data indicates that the certificate is in high demand by New Mexico employers as determined by the department in consultation with the New Mexico workforce solutions department.

C. A scholarship may be awarded for one or more workforce certificates, only one associate degree and only one bachelor's degree per student.

D. Scholarships may continue for a qualified student for up to 90 attempted credit hours for the completion of one associate degree.

E. Scholarships may continue for a qualified student for up to 160 attempted credit hours for the completion of one bachelor's degree.

F. In no case shall the scholarship fund more than 160 attempted credit hours; provided that dual credit courses that a qualified student previously completed shall not count toward the credit-hour cap.

G. The student's institutional lead financial aid officer may approve a leave of absence for a period of up to one year if in the lead financial aid officer's professional judgment the student has provided sufficient documentation to justify the leave of absence. Subsequent requests for an additional leave of absence by a student may be considered by the institution's lead financial aid officer in increments not to exceed one year.

H. The lead financial aid officer shall, in turn, ensure that the student does not receive scholarship awards in excess of those prescribed in Subsections A through F of 5.7.37.11 NMAC and shall exclude the semesters of "non-enrollment" from the determination of eligible award semesters.

[5.7.37.11 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.9 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.12 AMOUNT OF SCHOLARSHIP:

A. To the extent that funds are made available from the fund, the board of regents or governing bodies of public post-secondary educational institutions and tribal colleges shall award tuition scholarships in department approved amounts as follows:

(1) for returning student learners an amount not to exceed the cost of tuition and fees for enrollment in at least six credit hours, but not more than 18 credit hours in the fall or spring semester and optional enrollment in no less than three credit hours, but not more than nine credit hours during a summer semester.

(2) A scholarship may be awarded to a qualified student for the summer semester enrolled in at least three and no more than nine credit hours; provided that the summer semester is not required to maintain eligibility; and further provided that during a summer semester the student may enroll in more than nine credit hours but the scholarship shall be capped at the tuition charged for nine credit hours; and

(3) for recent graduate learners an amount not to exceed the cost of tuition and fees during a qualifying semester after any available state and institutional aid has been awarded. Provided sufficient funding exists in the Opportunity Scholarship Fund the award may be used to supplement, but not supplant the New Mexico legislative lottery tuition scholarship in an amount not to exceed the cost of tuition and fees for the qualifying semester and summer semesters, and fees for other semesters.

- B. If the fund does not cover full tuition scholarships the method the department will use for calculating the tuition scholarship is as follows:
- (1) estimate the total amount available in the opportunity scholarship fund, based on transfers, current year balances and additional funds made available through legislation;
 - (2) estimate the number of scholarship recipients for each institution, based on department-endorsed institutional projections;
 - (3) calculate the tuition scholarship for each sector (research, comprehensive and community college) and tribal college in accordance with Section 21-21N-4 NMSA 1978;
 - (4) calculate the total amount needed to pay full tuition and fees to all estimated scholarship recipients;
 - (5) compute an award for each scholarship recipient; and
 - (6) notify institutions of the maximum award by June 1st annually.
- C. In no case shall a student receive scholarship awards exceeding the total amount of tuition and fees charged after all other state aid has been applied.
- D. Qualified students in their graduating semester shall receive a tuition scholarship proportional to the number of credit hours required to graduate. Students in their graduating semester may enroll in fewer than six credit hours and maintain eligibility.
- E. For qualified students in their first semester, preference shall be given to independent students before other students to the extent funds are available.
- F. Opportunity scholarships may supplement but shall not supplant institutional aid such as three percent or bridge scholarships in the first semester.
- G. Opportunity scholarships may be awarded to qualified students after institutional aid such as three percent or bridge scholarships in the second semester and beyond.
[5.7.37.12 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.10 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.13 ADMINISTRATION OF THE OPPORTUNITY SCHOLARSHIP:

- A. Eligible public post-secondary educational institutions and tribal colleges shall:
- (1) notify students of their possible eligibility, during their first regular semester of enrollment including transfer students who had the opportunity scholarship at previous institutions;
 - (2) designate their institution's lead financial aid officer to be responsible for determining initial and continuing student eligibility for the opportunity scholarship under the terms of these rules and regulations;
 - (3) maintain a listing of each participating student to include, but not be limited to:
 - (a) social security number as appropriate;
 - (b) cumulative grade point average and completed enrollment hours in prior semesters;
 - (c) proof of initial and continuing enrollment;
 - (d) award semester; and
 - (e) other data fields deemed important by the department;
 - (4) draw-down files should be submitted to the department for qualified students as each semester; all fiscal year draw-downs shall be for qualified students enrolled during the same fiscal year;
 - (5) for students that satisfied the first semester eligibility requirements and seek continuing eligibility consideration, use professional judgment to determine that exceptional mitigating circumstances beyond the students control, for which documentation exists in the student's file; the institutions shall defer to their institutional satisfactory academic progress policy when considering circumstances which include, but are not limited to, consideration for falling below the cumulative grade point average requirement or successfully maintaining enrollment as defined in Paragraphs (2) through (3) of Subsection A of 5.7.37.8 NMAC;
 - (6) provide to the department by April 15 each year the projected enrollment and tuition rates for the following academic year for their institution;
 - (7) publish the probation policy as defined in 5.7.37.9 NMAC;
 - (8) encourage consortium agreements, as defined in the code of federal regulations, 34 CFR 6685, in order to facilitate the enrollment of students and to facilitate the student's participation in this program; and
 - (9) each semester, ensure that all available merit-based aid packages, three percent scholarships, institutional award packages, and state aid other than the New Mexico opportunity scholarship and New Mexico legislative lottery scholarships are awarded first before granting the New Mexico opportunity scholarship for tuition and fee costs.

- B. The department shall:
- (1) Enter into a memorandum of understanding on or before June 1st with each eligible institution describing:
 - (a) the maximum amount of tuition and fees per student that may be paid by the opportunity scholarship fund each fiscal year;
 - (b) the total amount available to the eligible institution for opportunity scholarships each fiscal year;
 - (c) the reimbursement of any reimbursable costs that exceed tuition and fees; and
 - (d) eligible workforce certificate programs.
 - (2) make available to the legislative finance committee and department of finance and administration, by November 1, the following information:
 - (a) the status of the fund;
 - (b) scholarship program participation data aggregated for each public post-secondary education institution and tribal college to show:
 - (i) the number of qualified students who received opportunity scholarships and in the prior 12-month period;
 - (ii) the total number of qualified students enrolled in the prior 12-month period;
 - (iii) the amount of tuition scholarships funded by semester and the amount of tuition costs that were not offset by the tuition scholarship by semester; and
 - (iv) the number of qualified students who graduated with a degree and, for each qualified student, the number of consecutive semesters and nonconsecutive semesters attended prior to graduation.
- [5.7.37.13 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.11 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

5.7.37.14 TERMINATION OF SCHOLARSHIPS: A scholarship is terminated upon noncompliance by the award recipient with the opportunity scholarship rules, regulations or procedures as promulgated by the department.
[5.7.37.14 NMAC - Rp., 5.7.37.12 NMAC, 6/25/2024]

History of 5.7.37 NMAC:

5.7.37 NMAC, New Mexico Opportunity Scholarship Program, filed 7/12/2022, was repeal and replaced by 5.7.37 NMAC, New Mexico Opportunity Scholarship Program, effective 6/25/2024.
