[8.235.400.22 NMAC - N, 1-1-14]

8.235.400.23 LIVING IN THE HOME:

A. Living in the home with a relative: To be included in the assistance unit, a child must be living, or considered to be living, in the home of:

(1) a natural or an adoptive parent; there is a presumption that a child born to a married woman is the child of the spouse, or if the individual established parentage by some other legally recognized process; or

(2) a specified relative who is related within the fifth degree of relationship by blood, marriage or adoption and assumes responsibility for the day-to-day care and control of the child; the determination of whether an individual functions as the specified relative shall be made by the specified relative unless other information known to the worker clearly indicates otherwise.

B. A child considered to be living in the home: A child is considered to be part of the assistance unit as evidenced by the child's customary physical presence in the home. If a child is living with more than one household, the following applies:

(1) when the child is actually spending more time with one household than the other, the child would be determined to be living with the household with whom the child spends the most time; and

(2) when the child is actually spending equal amounts of time with each household, the child shall be considered to be living with the household who first applies for medicaid enrollment.

C. Extended living in the home: An individual may be physically absent from the home for longer or shorter periods of time and be a member of the assistance unit and budget group.

(1) Extended living in the home includes:

(a) an individual attending college or a boarding school; or

(b) an individual receiving treatment in a Title XIX medicaid facility (including institutionalized when meeting a nursing facility (NF) level of care (LOC) and intermediate care facilities for individuals with an intellectual disability (ICF-IID) LOC.

(2) When an individual has been a member of the assistance unit, eligibility for another medicaid eligibility category, such as long term care medicaid, should be evaluated; until a determination of eligibility for another category can be made, the individual is considered to be living with the budget group.

D. Temporary absence - extended living in the home: An individual may be physically absent from the home and be a member of the assistance unit and budget group. These other temporary absences include:

(1) an individual not living in the home due to an emergency who is expected to return to the household within 60 calendar days, continues to be a member of the household;

(2) a child removed from the home of a parent or a specified relative by a child protective services agency (tribal, bureau of Indian affairs, or children, youth and families department), until an adjudicatory custody hearing takes place; if the adjudicatory hearing results in custody being granted to some other entity, the child will be removed from the assistance unit; or

(3) a child residing in a detention center:

(a) continues to be a member of the household if he or she resides fewer than 60 calendar days, regardless of adjudication as an inmate of a public institution; or

(b) the individual is not eligible for medicaid enrollment if he or she resides 60 calendar days or more as an adjudicated inmate of a public institution pursuant to 8.200.410 NMAC.
