13.1.3.8 Initial Privacy Notice to Consumers Required for Nonpublic Personal Financial Information:

A. Initial notice requirement. A licensee shall provide a clear and conspicuous notice that accurately reflects its privacy policies and practices to:

(1) Customer. An individual who becomes the licensee's customer, not later than when the licensee establishes a customer relationship, except as provided in subsection E of 13.1.3.8 NMAC; and

(2) Consumer. A consumer, when the licensee requests authorization to disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about the consumer to any nonaffiliated third party other than disclosures listed in 13.1.3.18 NMAC and 13.1.3.19 NMAC for which no authorization is required.

B. When initial notice to a consumer is not required. A licensee is not required to provide an initial notice to a consumer under paragraph (2) of subsection A of 13.1.3.8 NMAC if:

(1) The licensee does not request authorization to disclose any nonpublic personal information about the consumer to any nonaffiliated third party, other than disclosures listed in 13.1.3.18 NMAC and 13.1.3.19 NMAC for which no authorization is required, and the licensee does not have a customer relationship with the consumer; or

(2) A notice has been provided by an affiliated licensee, as long as the notice clearly identifies all licensees to whom the notice applies and is accurate with respect to the licensee and the other institutions.

C. When the licensee establishes a customer relationship.

(1) General rule. A licensee establishes a customer relationship at the time the licensee and the consumer enter into a continuing relationship.

(2) Examples of establishing customer relationship. A licensee establishes a customer relationship when the consumer:

(a) Becomes a policyholder of a licensee that is an insurer when the insurer delivers an insurance policy or contract to the consumer, or in the case of a licensee that is an insurance producer or insurance broker, obtains insurance through that licensee; or

(b) Agrees to obtain financial, economic or investment advisory services relating to insurance products or services for a fee from the licensee.

D. Existing customers. When an existing customer obtains a new insurance product or service from a licensee that is to be used primarily for personal, family or household purposes, the licensee satisfies the initial notice requirements of subsection A of 13.1.3.8 NMAC as follows:

(1) The licensee may provide a revised policy notice, under 13.1.3.12 NMAC, that covers the customer's new insurance product or service; or

(2) If the initial, revised or annual notice that the licensee most recently provided to that customer was accurate with respect to the new insurance product or service, the licensee does not need to provide a new privacy notice under subsection A of 13.1.3.8 NMAC.

E. Exceptions to allow subsequent delivery of notice.

(1) A licensee may provide the initial notice required by paragraph (1) of subsection A of 13.1.3.8 NMAC within a reasonable time after the licensee establishes a customer relationship if:

(a) Establishing the customer relationship is not at the customer's election; or

(b) Providing notice not later than when the licensee establishes a customer relationship would substantially delay the customer's transaction and the customer agrees to receive the notice at a later time.

(2) Examples of exceptions.

(a) Not at customer's election. Establishing a customer relationship is not at the customer's election if a licensee acquires or is assigned a customer's policy from another financial institution or residual market mechanism and the customer does not have a choice about the licensee's acquisition or assignment.

(b) Substantial delay of customer's transaction. Providing notice not later than when a licensee establishes a customer relationship would substantially delay the customer's transaction when the licensee and the individual agree over the telephone to enter into a customer relationship involving prompt delivery of the insurance product or service.

(c) No substantial delay of customer's transaction. Providing notice not later than when a licensee establishes a customer relationship would not substantially delay the customer's transaction when the relationship is initiated in person at the licensee's office or through other means by which the customer may view the notice, such as on a web site.

F. Delivery. When a licensee is required to deliver an initial privacy notice by this section, the licensee shall deliver it according to 13.1.3.13 NMAC.
[13.1.3.8 NMAC - N, 2-25-02]

13.1.3.9 Annual Privacy Notice to Customers Required for Nonpublic Personal Financial Information:

A. General rule. A licensee shall provide a clear and conspicuous notice to customers that accurately reflects its privacy policies and practices not less than annually during the continuation of the customer relationship. Annually means at least once in any period of twelve (12) consecutive months during which that relationship exists. A licensee may define the twelve-consecutive-month period, but the licensee shall apply it to the customer on a consistent basis. Example: A licensee provides a notice annually if it defines the twelve-consecutive-month period as a calendar year and provides the annual notice to the customer once in each calendar year following the calendar year in which the licensee provided the initial notice. For example, if a customer opens an account on any day of year 1, the licensee shall provide an annual notice to that customer by December 31 of year 2.

B. Termination of customer relationship. A licensee is not required to provide an annual notice to a former customer. A former customer is an individual with whom a licensee no longer has a continuing relationship. Examples:

(1) A licensee no longer has a continuing relationship with an individual if the individual no longer is a current policyholder of an insurance product or no longer obtains insurance services with or through the licensee.

(2) A licensee no longer has a continuing relationship with an individual if the individual's policy is lapsed, expired or otherwise inactive or dormant under the licensee's business practices, and the licensee has not communicated with the customer about the relationship for a period of twelve (12) consecutive months, other than to provide annual privacy notices, material required by law or rule, or promotional materials.

(3) For the purposes of this rule, a licensee no longer has a continuing relationship with an individual if the individual's last known address according to the licensee's records is deemed invalid. An address of record is deemed invalid if mail sent to that address by the licensee has been returned by the postal authorities as undeliverable and if subsequent attempts by the licensee to obtain a current valid address for the individual have been unsuccessful.

(4) A licensee no longer has a continuing relationship with a customer in the case of providing real estate settlement services, at the time the customer completes execution of all documents related to the real estate closing, payment for those services has been received, or the licensee has completed all of its responsibilities with respect to the settlement, including filing documents on the public record, whichever is later.

C. Delivery. When a licensee is required by this section to deliver an annual privacy notice, the licensee shall deliver it according to 13.1.3.13 NMAC.

(5) If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party under 13.1.3.17 NMAC (and no other exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC and 13.1.3.19 NMAC applies to that disclosure), a separate description of the categories of information the licensee discloses and the categories of third parties with whom the licensee has contracted;

(6) An explanation of the consumer's right under subsection A of 13.1.3.14 NMAC to authorize or not to authorize the disclosure of nonpublic financial personal information to nonaffiliated third parties;

(7) Any disclosures that the licensee makes under Section 603(d)(2)(A)(iii) of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681a(d)(2)(A)(iii)) (that is, notices regarding the ability to opt out of disclosures of information among affiliates);

(8) The licensee's policies and practices with respect to protecting the confidentiality and security of nonpublic personal financial information; and

(9) Any disclosure that the licensee makes under subsection B of 13.1.3.10 NMAC.

B. Description of parties subject to exceptions. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information as authorized under 13.1.3.18 NMAC and 13.1.3.19 NMAC, the licensee is not required to list those exceptions in the initial or annual privacy notices required by 13.1.3.8 NMAC and 13.1.3.9 NMAC. When describing the categories of parties to whom disclosure is made, the licensee is required to state only that it makes disclosures to other affiliated or nonaffiliated third parties, as applicable, as permitted by law.

C. Examples.

(1) Categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee collects. A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize the nonpublic personal financial information it collects if the licensee categorizes it according to the source of the information, as applicable:

- (a) Information from the consumer;
- (b) Information about the consumer's transactions with the licensee or its affiliates;
- (c) Information about the consumer's transactions with nonaffiliated third parties; and
- (d) Information from a consumer reporting agency.

(2) Categories of nonpublic personal financial information a licensee discloses.

(a) A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize nonpublic personal financial information it discloses if the licensee categorizes the information according to source, as described in paragraph (1) of subsection C of 13.1.3.10 NMAC, as applicable, and provides a few examples to illustrate the types of information in each category. These might include: information from the consumer, including application information, such as assets and income and identifying information, such as name, address and social security number; transaction information, such as information about balances, payment history and parties to the transaction; and information from consumer reports, such as a consumer's creditworthiness and credit history.

(b) A licensee does not adequately categorize the information that it discloses if the licensee uses only general terms, such as transaction information about the consumer.

(3) Categories of affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties.

(a) A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize the affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties if the licensee identifies the types of businesses in which they engage.

(b) Types of businesses may be described by general terms only if the licensee uses a few illustrative examples of significant lines of business. For example, a licensee may use the term financial products or services if it includes appropriate examples of significant lines of businesses, such as life insurer, automobile insurer, consumer banking or securities brokerage.

(c) A licensee also may categorize the affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties using more detailed categories.

(4) Disclosures under exception for service providers and joint marketers. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information under the exception in 13.1.3.17 NMAC to a nonaffiliated third party to market products or services that it offers alone or jointly with another financial institution, the licensee satisfies the disclosure requirement of paragraph (5) of subsection A of 13.1.3.10 NMAC if it:

(a) Lists the categories of nonpublic personal financial information it will disclose if authorization is obtained from the consumer whose nonpublic personal information is sought to be disclosed, using the same categories and examples the licensee used to meet the requirements of paragraph 2 of subsection A of 13.1.3.10 NMAC, as applicable; and

(b) States whether the third party is a service provider that performs marketing services on the licensee's behalf or on behalf of the licensee and another financial institution; or a financial institution with whom the licensee has a joint marketing agreement.

(5) Simplified notices. If a licensee does not disclose, and does not wish to reserve the right to disclose, nonpublic personal financial information about customers or former customers to affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties except as authorized under 13.1.3.18 NMAC and 13.1.3.19 NMAC, the licensee may simply state the fact, in addition to the information it shall provide under paragraphs (1), (8) and (9) of subsection A of 13.1.3.10 NMAC and subsection B of 13.1.3.10 NMAC.

(6) Confidentiality and security. A licensee describes its policies and practices with respect to protecting the confidentiality and security of nonpublic personal financial information if it does both of the following:

(a) Describes in general terms who is authorized to have access to the information; and
(b) States whether the licensee has security practices and procedures in place to ensure the confidentiality of the information in accordance with the licensee's policy. The licensee is not required to describe technical information about the safeguards it uses.

D. Short-form initial notice with notice regarding request for authorization for non-customers.

(1) A licensee may satisfy the initial notice requirements in paragraph (2) of subsection A of 13.1.3.8 NMAC and subsection C of 13.1.3.11 NMAC for a consumer who is not a customer by providing a short-form initial notice at the same time as the licensee delivers a notice regarding request for authorization as required in 13.1.3.11 NMAC.

(2) A short-form initial notice shall:

- (a) Be clear and conspicuous;
- (b) State that the licensee's privacy notice is available upon request; and
- (c) Explain a reasonable means by which the consumer may obtain that notice.

(3) The licensee shall deliver its short-form initial notice according to 13.1.3.13 NMAC. The licensee is not required to deliver its privacy notice with its short-form initial notice. The licensee instead may simply provide the consumer a reasonable means to obtain its privacy notice. If a consumer who receives the licensee's short-form notice requests the licensee's privacy notice, the licensee shall deliver its privacy notice according to 13.1.3.13 NMAC.

(4) Examples of obtaining privacy notice. The licensee provides a reasonable means by which a consumer may obtain a copy of its privacy notice if the licensee:

- (a) Provides a toll-free telephone number that the consumer may call to request the notice; or
- (b) For a consumer who conducts business in person at the licensee's office, maintains copies of the notice on hand that the licensee provides to the consumer immediately upon request.

E. Future disclosures. The licensee's notice may include:

(1) Categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee reserves the right to disclose in the future, but does not currently disclose; and

(2) Categories of affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties to whom the licensee reserves the right in the future to disclose, but to whom the licensee does not currently disclose, nonpublic personal financial information.

F. Sample clauses. Sample clauses illustrating some of the notice content required by this section are included in 13.1.3.28 NMAC.

[13.1.3.10 NMAC - N, 2-25-02]

13.1.3.11 Notice to Consumers regarding Request for Authorization:

A. Form of notice. If a licensee is required to provide notice under subsection A of 13.1.3.14 NMAC, it shall provide a clear and conspicuous notice to each of its consumers that accurately explains the right to authorize disclosures under that section. The notice shall state:

(1) That the licensee may only disclose nonpublic personal information about its consumer if the licensee first obtains authorization from the consumer; and

(2) That the consumer has the right to authorize or not to authorize the disclosure.

B. Examples. A licensee provides adequate notice that the consumer has the right to authorize or not to authorize the disclosure of nonpublic personal information if the licensee:

(1) Identifies all of the categories of nonpublic personal information the licensee will disclose if authorization is obtained from the consumer whose nonpublic personal information is sought to be disclosed and all of the categories of affiliated and nonaffiliated third parties to whom the licensee will disclose the information, as described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of subsection A of 13.1.3.10 NMAC, and states that the consumer has the right to authorize or not to authorize the disclosure of that information; and

(2) Identifies the insurance products or services that the consumer obtains from the licensee, either singly or jointly, to which the authorization would apply.

C. Notice required when request for authorization delivered subsequent to initial notice. If a licensee provides the notice to consumers regarding request for authorization later than required for the initial notice in accordance with 13.1.3.8 NMAC, the licensee shall also include a copy of the initial notice with the request for authorization in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically.

D. Joint relationships.

(1) If two (2) or more consumers jointly obtain an insurance product or service from a licensee, the licensee shall provide notices and an authorization form to each joint consumer.

(2) An authorization signed by all joint consumers must be obtained by the licensee before it may disclose any nonpublic personal information, except as otherwise authorized in this rule or in accordance with an exception in 13.1.3.17 NMAC, 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC.

E. Delivery. When a licensee is required to deliver a notice by this section, the licensee shall deliver it according to 13.1.3.13 NMAC.

13.1.3.12 Revised Privacy Notices for Nonpublic Personal Financial Information

A. General rule. Except as otherwise authorized in this rule, a licensee shall not, directly or through an affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about a consumer other than as described in the initial notice that the licensee provided to that consumer under 13.1.3.8 NMAC or in the authorization obtained from the consumer, unless:

(1) The licensee has provided to the consumer a clear and conspicuous revised notice that accurately describes its policies and practices;

(2) The licensee has provided to the consumer a new notice to consumers regarding request for authorization and a new authorization; and

(3) The licensee has obtained authorization from the consumer whose nonpublic personal financial information is sought to be disclosed.

B. Examples. Except as otherwise permitted by 13.1.3.17 NMAC, 13.1.3.18 NMAC and 13.1.3.19 NMAC, a licensee shall provide a revised notice if it requests authorization to disclose:

(1) a new category of nonpublic personal information;

(2) nonpublic personal information to a new category of nonaffiliated third party; or

(3) nonpublic personal information about a former customer to a nonaffiliated third party, if that former customer has not previously authorized the disclosure.

C. Delivery. When a licensee is required to deliver a revised privacy notice by this section, the licensee shall deliver it according to 13.1.3.13 NMAC.

[13.1.3.12 NMAC - N, 2-25-02]

13.1.3.13 Delivery:

A. How to provide notices. A licensee shall provide any notices that this rule requires so that each consumer can reasonably be expected to receive actual notice in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically.

(1) Examples of reasonable expectation of actual notice. A licensee may reasonably expect that a consumer will receive actual notice if the licensee:

(a) Hand-delivers a printed copy of the notice to the consumer;

(b) Mails a printed copy of the notice to the last known address of the consumer separately, or in a policy, billing or other written communication;

(c) For a consumer who conducts transactions electronically, posts the notice on the electronic site and requires the consumer to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining a particular insurance product or service; or

(d) For an isolated transaction with a consumer, such as the licensee providing an insurance quote or selling the consumer travel insurance, posts the notice and requires the consumer to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining the particular insurance product or service.

(2) Examples of unreasonable expectation of actual notice. A licensee may not, however, reasonably expect that a consumer will receive actual notice of its privacy policies and practices if it:

(a) Only posts a sign in its office or generally publishes advertisements of its privacy policies and practices; or

(b) Sends the notice via electronic mail to a consumer who does not obtain an insurance product or service from the licensee electronically.

B. Annual notices only. A licensee may reasonably expect that a customer will receive actual notice of the licensee's annual privacy notice if:

(1) The customer uses the licensee's web site to access insurance products and services electronically and agrees to receive notices at the web site and the licensee posts its current privacy notice continuously in a clear and conspicuous manner on the web site; or

(2) The customer has requested that the licensee refrain from sending any information regarding the customer relationship, and the licensee's current privacy notice remains available to the customer upon request.

C. Oral description of notice insufficient. A licensee may not provide any notice required by this rule solely by orally explaining the notice, either in person or over the telephone.

D. Retention or accessibility of notices for customers.

(1) For customers only, a licensee shall provide the initial notice required by paragraph (1) of subsection A of 13.1.3.8 NMAC, the annual notice required by subsection A of 13.1.3.9 NMAC, and the revised notice required by 13.1.3.12 NMAC so that the customer can retain them or obtain them later in writing or, if the customer agrees, electronically.

(2) Examples of retention or accessibility. A licensee provides a privacy notice to the customer so that the customer can retain it or obtain it later if the licensee:

(a) Hand-delivers a printed copy of the notice to the customer;

(b) Mails a printed copy of the notice to the last known address of the customer; or

(c) Makes its current privacy notice available on a web site (or a link to another web site) for the customer who obtains an insurance product or service electronically and agrees to receive the notice at the web site.

E. Joint notice with other financial institutions. A licensee may provide a joint notice from the licensee and one or more of its affiliates or other financial institutions, as identified in the notice, as long as the notice is accurate with respect to the licensee and the other institutions. A licensee also may provide a notice on behalf of another financial institution.

F. Joint relationships. If two (2) or more consumers jointly obtain an insurance product or service from a licensee, the licensee may satisfy the initial, annual and revised notice requirements of subsection A of 13.1.3.8 NMAC, subsection A of 13.1.3.9 NMAC and subsection A of 13.1.3.12 NMAC, respectively, by providing one notice to those consumers jointly.

[13.1.3.13 NMAC - N, 2-25-02]

13.1.3.14 Limits on Disclosure of Nonpublic Personal Information:

A. Conditions for disclosure. Except as otherwise authorized in this rule, a licensee may not, directly or through any affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal health information to any party, including affiliates, and may not, directly or through an affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about a consumer to a nonaffiliated third party unless:

(1) The licensee has provided to the consumer any initial notice as required under 13.1.3.8 NMAC regarding nonpublic personal financial information;

(2) The licensee has provided to the consumer a notice as required in 13.1.3.11 NMAC; and

(3) An authorization is obtained from the consumer whose nonpublic personal information is sought to be disclosed.

B. Application to all consumers and all nonpublic personal information.

(1) A licensee shall comply with this section, regardless of whether the licensee and the consumer have established a customer relationship.

(2) Unless a licensee complies with this section, the licensee may not, directly or through any affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal information about a consumer that the licensee has collected, regardless of whether the licensee collected it before or after receiving authorization from the consumer.

C. Partial authorization. A licensee may allow a consumer to select certain nonpublic personal information or certain affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties with respect to which the consumer wishes to authorize disclosure of specified nonpublic personal information.

[13.1.3.14 NMAC - N, 2-25-02]

13.1.3.15 Limits on Redislosure and Reuse of Nonpublic Personal Information:

A. Nonpublic personal financial information the licensee receives under an exception. If a licensee receives nonpublic personal financial information from a nonaffiliated financial or other institution under an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC, the licensee's disclosure and use of that information is limited as follows:

(1) The licensee may disclose the information to the affiliates of the financial or other institution from which the licensee received the information;

(2) The licensee may disclose the information to its affiliates, but the licensee's affiliates may, in turn, disclose and use the information only to the extent that the licensee may disclose and use the information; and

(3) The licensee may disclose and use the information pursuant to an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC, in the ordinary course of business to carry out the activity covered by the exception under which the licensee received the information.

(4) Example. If a licensee receives information from a nonaffiliated financial or other institution for claims settlement purposes, the licensee may disclose the information for fraud prevention, or in response to a properly authorized subpoena. The licensee may not disclose that information to a third party for marketing purposes or use that information for its own marketing purposes.

B. Nonpublic personal financial information a licensee receives outside of an exception. If a licensee receives nonpublic personal financial information from a nonaffiliated financial institution other than under an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC, the licensee may disclose the information only:

(1) To the affiliates of the financial or other institution from which the licensee received the information;

(2) To its affiliates, but its affiliates may, in turn, disclose the information only to the extent that the licensee may disclose the information; and

(3) To any other person, if the disclosure would be lawful if made directly to that person by the financial institution from which the licensee received the information.

(4) Example. If a licensee obtains a customer list from a nonaffiliated financial or other institution outside of the exceptions in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC:

(a) The licensee may use that list for its own purposes; and

(b) The licensee may disclose that list to another nonaffiliated third party only if the financial or other institution from which the licensee purchased the list could have lawfully disclosed the list to that third party. That is, the licensee may disclose the list in accordance with the privacy policy of the financial or other institution from which the licensee received the list, consistent with the authorization of each consumer whose nonpublic personal financial information the licensee intends to disclose, and the licensee may disclose the list in accordance with an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC, such as to the licensee's attorneys or accountants.

C. Nonpublic personal financial information a licensee discloses under an exception. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party under an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC, the third party may disclose and use that information only as follows:

(1) The third party may disclose the information to the licensee's affiliates;

(2) The third party may disclose the information to its affiliates, but its affiliates may, in turn, disclose and use the information only to the extent that the third party may disclose and use the information; and

(3) The third party may disclose and use the information pursuant to an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC in the ordinary course of business to carry out the activity covered by the exception under which it received the information.

D. Nonpublic personal financial information a licensee discloses pursuant to consumer authorization outside of an exception. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal information to a nonaffiliated third party pursuant to 13.1.3.14 NMAC, the third party may disclose the information only:

(1) To the licensee's affiliates;

(2) To the third party's affiliates, but the third party's affiliates, in turn, may disclose the information only to the extent the third party can disclose the information; and

(3) To any other person, if the disclosure would be lawful if the licensee made it directly to that person.

E. Nonpublic personal health information.

(1) If a licensee receives nonpublic personal health information from an affiliate or a nonaffiliated third party under an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC, the licensee may disclose and use the information pursuant to an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC in the ordinary course of business to carry out the activity covered by the exception under which the licensee received the information.

(2) If a licensee receives nonpublic personal health information other than under an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC, the licensee may disclose the information only to any other person, if the disclosure would be lawful if made directly to that person by the individual from whom the licensee received the information.

(3) If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal health information to an affiliate or to a nonaffiliated third party under an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC, the affiliate or third party may only disclose and use that information pursuant to an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC in the ordinary course of business to carry out the activity covered by the exception under which it received the information.

(4) If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal health information to an affiliate or a nonaffiliated third party pursuant to 13.1.3.14 NMAC, the affiliate or third party may disclose the information only to any other person if the disclosure would be lawful if the licensee made it directly to that person.

[13.1.3.15 NMAC - N, 2-25-02]

13.1.3.16 Limits on Sharing Account Number Information for Marketing Purposes:

A. General prohibition on disclosure of account numbers. A licensee shall not, directly or through an affiliate, disclose, other than to a consumer reporting agency, a policy number or similar form of access number or access code for a consumer's policy or transaction account to any nonaffiliated third party for use in telemarketing, direct mail marketing or other marketing through electronic mail to the consumer.

B. Exceptions. Subsection A of 13.1.3.16 NMAC does not apply if a licensee discloses a policy number or similar form of access number or access code:

(1) To the licensee's service provider solely in order to perform marketing for the licensee's own products or services, as long as the service provider is not authorized to directly initiate charges to the account;

(2) To a licensee who is a producer solely in order to perform marketing for the licensee's own products or services; or

(3) To a participant in an affinity or similar program where the participants in the program are identified to the customer when the customer enters into the program.

C. Examples.

(1) Policy number. A policy number, or similar form of access number or access code, does not include a number or code in an encrypted form, as long as the licensee does not provide the recipient with a means to decode the number or code.

(2) Policy or transaction account. For the purposes of this section, a policy or transaction account is an account other than a deposit account or a credit card account. A policy or transaction account does not include an account to which third parties cannot initiate charges.

[13.1.3.16 NMAC - N, 2-25-02]

13.1.3.17 Exception to Authorization Requirement for Disclosure of Nonpublic Personal Financial Information for Service Providers and Joint Marketing:

A. General rule.

(1) The notice and authorization requirements in 13.1.3.11 NMAC and 13.1.3.14 NMAC do not apply when a licensee provides nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party to perform services for the licensee or functions on the licensee's behalf, if the licensee:

(a) Provides the initial notice in accordance with 13.1.3.8 NMAC; and

(b) Enters into a contractual agreement with the third party that prohibits the third party from disclosing or using the information other than to carry out the purposes for which the licensee disclosed the information, including use under an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC in the ordinary course of business to carry out those purposes.

(2) Example. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information under this section to a financial institution with which the licensee performs joint marketing, the licensee's contractual agreement with that institution meets the requirements of subparagraph (b) of paragraph (1) of subsection A of 13.1.3.17 NMAC if it prohibits the institution from disclosing or using the nonpublic personal financial information except as necessary to carry out the joint marketing or under an exception in 13.1.3.18 NMAC or 13.1.3.19 NMAC in the ordinary course of business to carry out that joint marketing.

B. Joint marketing. The services a nonaffiliated third party performs for a licensee under subsection A of 13.1.3.17 NMAC may include disclosures of nonpublic personal financial information for the purpose of marketing of the licensee's own products or services or marketing of financial products or services offered pursuant to joint agreements between the licensee and one or more financial institutions. A licensee shall not disclose nonpublic personal health information for joint marketing pursuant to 13.1.3.17 NMAC unless the licensee has first obtained authorization from the consumer whose nonpublic personal health information is sought to be disclosed for joint marketing.

C. Definition of "joint agreement." For purposes of this section, "joint agreement" means a written contract pursuant to which a licensee and one or more financial institutions jointly offer, endorse or sponsor a financial product or service.

(1) With the consent or at the direction of the consumer, provided that the consumer has not revoked the consent or direction;

(2) To protect the confidentiality or security of a licensee's records pertaining to the consumer, service, product or transaction; to protect against or prevent actual or potential fraud or unauthorized transactions; for required institutional risk control or for resolving consumer disputes or inquiries; to persons holding a legal or beneficial interest relating to the consumer; or to persons acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of the consumer;
