Opening Reception and Special Film Viewing
Wednesday, October 3, 2012, 4:00-6:00 p.m.
Domenici Center - Auditorium Lobby

Special film viewing of five short films from the 1930s produced by the New Mexico Department of Health. These films are now held in the State Archives and document an important time in our history and the care of New Mexicans. Films include -

- "Malaria in New Mexico"
- "Community Sanitation in New Mexico"
- "A Well Baby Home Visit"
- "Materials Carried in the New Mexico Public Health Nurse's Bag"
- "Sanitary Improvements in New Mexico"

Noon-time lectures and web-feature stories accompany the exhibit. For more information, please contact Laura Hall, exhibit curator, at (505) 272-6518 or visit: hsc.unm.edu/library.

Sponsors for the exhibit and reception include: UNM College of Nursing, UNM Foundation, New Mexico Medical Society, and the HSC Office of Diversity. Photographs: "Health Mobile," JE Harris, ca. 1920. "Mother and Child," John Collier, Jan. 1943.
